Not bad translations, but bad Interpretations.

All of these are "legitimate" translations of the words, but not all of them communicate Paul's intent.

Paul did not intend to be ambiguous, and the Corinthians understood the meaning on their end.

Which translation is most likely to capture Paul's intent in saying what he did, and renders that intent best in English?

...one translation commits a person to only one...
...ive option, and if the translation is "confused",
...will be the meaning.
