Heads of State and Government of the Member States of the European Union,
 7 August 2023
 The International Committee in Search of Justice (ICSI), which enjoys the support of thousands of diplomats across Europe, wishes urgently to draw your attention to the imminent regime's latest human rights violations on international law and justice in the European Union.
 On July 29, in an official statement, Iran's Judiciary issued 103 judgments for the People's Mojahedin Organization of Iran (PMOI) and 104 named people, most of whom are refugees in various European Union countries, or refugees residing in Albania. The Iranian judiciary has pompously demanded that those subjected should present their lawyers within a month.
 In addition, the Iranian state-run media and regime officials boasted about setting the stage for the extradition of Iran refugees. One report stated, "Kerem Chiribabek, the secretary of the regime's human rights headquarters announced the possibility of extraditing Mojahedin members to the country and said that cases have been filed regarding some Mojahedin members in various European countries, but those governments have not dealt with these cases well in their judicial system." (Iran state-run media, August 1, 2023)
 The government newspaper Jomhouri Jangh announced on July 29, "After the legal deputy of the President and the spokesperson of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs emphasized their pursuit of the extradition of the Mojahedin, the necessary judicial instances for this operation have already been issued. For the first time, the indictment of 103 fugitive Mojahedin was published on July 30. The extradition process requires the issuance of a warrant for the Mojahedin abroad, and this will enable their implementation and follow-up abroad through the airport."
 This is an absurd situation by a regime that...

Heads of State and Government of the ...
 2 August 2023.
 The International Committee in Search of Justice (ISJ), which enjoys the support of thousands of legislators across Europe, wishes urgently to draw your attention to the Iranian regime's latest brazen assault on international law and justice in the European Union.
 On July 29, in an official statement, Iran's Judiciary issued 105 indictments for the People's Mojahedin Organization of Iran (PMOI) and 104 named people, most of whom are refugees or citizens of European Union countries, or refugees residing in Albania. The Iranian judiciary has presumptuously demanded that those indicted should present their lawyers within a month.
 In tandem, the Iranian state-run media and regime officials boasted about setting the stage for the extradition of these refugees. One report stated, "Kazem Gharibabadi, the secretary of the regime's human rights headquarters, announced the possibility of extraditing Mojahedin members to the country and said that cases have been filed regarding some Mojahedin members in various European countries, but some governments have not dealt with these cases well in their judicial system" (State-controlled media, August 1, 2023).
 The government newspaper Jam-e Jam wrote on July 29: "After the legal deputy of the President and the Spokesperson of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs emphasized their pursuit of the extradition of the Mojahedin, the necessary judicial measures for this operation have already been initiated. For the first time, the indictment of 105 fugitive Mojahedin was published on July 30. The extradition process requires the issuance of a verdict for the Mojahedin abroad, and this will enable their implementation and follow-up abroad through Interpol."
 This is an absurd exhibition by a regime that does not value the right to life. It has executed tens of thousands of political prisoners after show trials that last only a few days. Iran's judiciary is nothing but an execution and killing machine, and it is more interested in prison than in court. Many ...

The International Committee on North of Justice (ICNJ) which enjoys the support of thousands of legislators across Europe, wishes to draw your attention to the Iranian regime's latest tactics aimed at circumventing law and justice in the European Union.

On July 29, in an official statement, Iran's Judiciary issued 105 indictments for the People's Mojahedin Organization of Iran (PMOI) and 104 named people, most of whom are refugees in various of European Union countries, in refugee receiving in Albania. The Iranian judiciary has previously demanded that those indicted should present their lawyers within a month.

In various, the Iranian state-run media and regime officials boasted about setting the stage for the conviction of these refugees. One report stated: "Kazem Ghorbaleh, the secretary of the regime's human rights headquarters, announced the possibility of extraditing Mojahedin members to the country and said that cases have been filed regarding some Mojahedin members in various European countries, but some governments have not dealt with these cases out of their political interest" (Iran-uncontrolled media, August 1, 2023).

The international newspaper, Iran's Law, wrote on July 29: "After the legal deputy of the President and the spokesperson of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs emphasized their pursuit of the prosecution of the Mojahedin, the necessary political measures for their operations have already been initiated. For the first time, the indictment of 105 fugitive Mojahedin was published on July 30. The extradition process requires the issuance of a warrant for the fugitive abroad and this will enable these imprisonments and follow-up abroad through Europe."

This is an absurd exhibition by a regime that does not value the right to defend and has concerned one of thousands of political prisoners after those trials that last only a few days. This is a case. Many lawyers have been arrested and put in prison.

 منحوس خامنه ای و
 قاسم سلیمانی در تهران،

The government of Iran, since the beginning of 2023, has taken a series of repressive measures to boost the morale of its suppressive regime and to paralyze its main organized opposition outside of Iran, with these bogus court cases.

Unfortunately, repeated aggressive actions against the Iranian opposition, by the regime, have been met with silence or indecisive action by the EU, emboldening some these ridiculous indictments. The release of Assadollah Assadi, the Iranian terrorist diplomat, was a case in point. Assadi commanded the biggest terrorist incident in Europe in decades and yet was released by the Belgian government, in direct response to the Iranian regime's hostage-taking of a Belgian citizen. Similarly, the attack on the Iranian refugees in Ashraf 3 in Albania, on June 20 this year, based on false information provided by Tehran, was another disgraceful act of appeasement of this criminal regime.

Considering the above points, we ask you and the relevant authorities in the EU's Member States, firmly to condemn the repressive measures against the PMOI and indicted named members, under the cover of these irrational judicial measures instigated by the regime. The EU should also ensure the basic rights and freedoms of the refugees who are members of the PMOI in Ashraf 3 in Albania and guarantee that they enjoy all the rights stipulated in the 1951 Geneva Convention and the European Convention on Human Rights and International Law, including the freedom of speech and assembly. These are the rights that the Prime Minister of Albania committed to in a letter to the Vice President of the European Parliament in April 2016. Adhering to this commitment would constitute a very positive step for Albania's entry into the European Union.

Finally, it is our sincere conviction that those responsible for crimes against humanity and human rights abuse in the Iranian regime should themselves be indicted and brought before the International Court of Justice in The Hague.

Yours sincerely,
