THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Thursday, February 9, 2023

Sentenced for Conspiring to Provide Electronic Equipment and Technology to the Government of Iran

Earlier today in federal court in Brooklyn, New York, Kambiz Artar Kashani, 44, a dual citizen of the United States and Iran, was sentenced to 30 months in prison for conspiring to illegally export U.S. goods and technology to end users in Iran, including the Central Bank of Iran, in violation of the International Economic Powers Act (IEEPA). The Central Bank of Iran is an Iranian government agency that, according to the U.S. government, has materially supported Lebanese Hezbollah and the Qods Force of Iran's Islamic Revolutionary Guards Corps, both designated terrorist organizations.

"Kashani conspired to illegally export U.S. goods and technology for the benefit of the Central Bank of Iran, a designated entity that materially supports known terrorist organizations," said Assistant Attorney General Matthew G. Olsen of the Justice Department's National Security Division. "The Department remains vigilant against any efforts to circumvent our export control and sanctions laws, which exist to protect the security of the United States and its people."

"Kashani defied export restrictions and regulations against Iran, a country that sponsors international terrorism," said U.S. Attorney Eron Peace for the Eastern District of New York. "This case demonstrates the Department's continued support of U.S. foreign policy and national security interests and warrants a substantial sentence."

"This is a sobering reminder that illegally exporting U.S. goods and technology to Iran, a country that sponsors international terrorism, has a direct impact on the safety of the American people," said Assistant Attorney General Matthew G. Olsen of the Justice Department's National Security Division. "Kashani conspired to illegally export U.S. goods and technology to Iran, a designated state sponsor of terrorism, in violation of the IEEPA. The recipient of the goods and technology, the Central Bank of Iran, is a designated entity that materially supports known terrorist organizations such as Iran's Qods Force and the Islamic Revolutionary Guards Corps, both designated terrorist organizations. As long as these goods and technology are exported and brought to Iran, they will be used to support these terrorist organizations and their efforts to bring about regime change in Iran and to bring about the end of the Islamic Republic of Iran."

According to the indictment, Kashani conspired with multiple U.S. citizens to export U.S. goods and technology to Iran, including the Central Bank of Iran, in violation of the IEEPA. Kashani conspired to export U.S. goods and technology to Iran, including the Central Bank of Iran, in violation of the IEEPA.
