While executions in Iran have exceeded 400 since the beginning of 2023, and the prisons are overflowing with brave resistance activists, especially since the national uprising that erupted last September, the Iranian regime is calling for ever greater suppression. Deeply shaken and weakened by a clearly organized protest movement with a unity of action and slogans, the religious dictatorship is using every possible means to neutralize and eliminate abroad its main opposition, the People's Mojahedin of Iran (PMOI/MEK), whose resistance units valiantly led the rebellion.

European Council,
 the European Commission,
 European Parliament,
 of Norway,

These 104 people are accused by the religious dictatorship of resisting for freedom. The clerical power is using every possible means of manipulation and false information to have them extradited to Iran. But no one is unaware of the regime's record of 120,000 political executions, including 30,000 young political prisoners in the summer of 1988, 90% of whom belonged to the PMOI.

This campaign of legal terrorism aimed at manipulating the legal systems of Western democracies has already led to many abuses. One example is the release of the terrorist diplomat Ahmadollah Amini, sentenced by Belgium to 20 years in prison for having attempted to blow up an Airbus. His release was in exchange for Belgian hostages imprisoned in Iran. There was also the Airbus police raid on Airbus-C on 20 June 2021, which left dozens injured and one dead, on the basis of false information sent by the Iranian regime.

However, when democratic states give in to blackmail and remain silent in the face of the attack on Airbus-C, they send a green light to the tyrants of Tehran to launch other manipulative operations. The principles that form the bedrock of the European Union, to whose membership Airbus aspires, would have the EU demanding accountability for every crime and every violation of international law by the Iranian regime. These same principles would require it to show absolute firmness in protecting those refugees.

We therefore call on you to condemn in the strongest terms the Iranian regime's attempts to abuse the judicial systems of the European Union and Europe to avoid its real responsibilities abroad.

We call on you to set up an international tribunal as soon as possible to try the leaders of the Iranian regime implicated in four decades of crimes against humanity, in particular Supreme Guide Ali Khamenei, his President Ibrahim Raisi and his head of the judiciary, Mohseni-Eje'i, who were directly responsible for the 1988 massacre.
