While executions in Iran have exceeded 400 since the beginning of 2023, and the prisons are overflowing with brave resistance activists, especially since the national uprising that erupted last September, the Iranian regime is calling for ever greater suppression. Deeply shaken and weakened by a clearly organized protest movement with a unity of action and slogans, the religious dictatorship is using every means to neutralize and eliminate abroad its main opposition, the People's Mujahedin of Iran (PMOI/MEK), whose resistance units valiantly led the rebellion.

This campaign of legal terrorism aimed at manipulating the legal systems of Western democracies has already led to many abuses. One example is the release of the terrorist diplomat Assadollah Assadi
