The British Committee for Iran Freedom

21 people in "sham trials" designed to incite violence have participated in the popular uprising that has rocked Iran.

The British Committee for Iran Freedom calls for concrete actions to stop the continuing repression in Iran. The time of verbal condemnation is over.

It is time for the UK Government to respond clearly to the regime by taking specific measures and imposing serious and effective sanctions against its leaders, including shutting down the regime's embassy and backing the ICG. Any dialogue and interaction with the regime must be contingent upon the release of all detained protesters and the revocation of all death sentences.
