Support the Iranian People in Their Struggle for a Secular and Democratic Republic

The world has witnessed a sweeping popular uprising in Iran demanding a secular and democratic republic. Some 758 protesters have been killed and 20,000 arrested. Any change should come from the Iranian people and their elected representatives. The international community has its own responsibility.

We stand in solidarity with the people of Iran in their desire for a secular and democratic republic where no individual, regardless of religious or birthright, has any privilege over others. Through their slogans the Iranian people have made it clear that they reject all forms of dictatorship, be it the deposed Shah or the current theocratic regime and thus reject any association with either.

We believe it is for the Iranian people to decide their future. However, we recognise the fact that over the past four decades, the democratic coalition of the National Council of Resistance of Iran (NCRI) has constantly and tirelessly pursued democratic change. In this respect, we believe the 100-point Plan articulated by the NCRI President, Mrs. Maryam Rajavi, deserves our support. It stands for free elections, freedom of assembly and expression, abolition of the death penalty, gender equality, the separation of religion and state, autonomy for Iran's provinces, and a non-nuclear Iran.

The Iranian people's courageous uprising, can be attributed, on the one hand, to the oppressive state of Iranian society, a product of suppression, poverty, discrimination, and government corruption, and, on the other hand, four decades of unrelenting suppressed resistance. Tragically, in the summer of 1988 alone, over 30,000 political prisoners - the vast majority of whom were members of the MEK - were brutally massacred.

We condemn the Iranian regime's meddling in the Middle East region and Europe, including terrorist attempts and cyber-attacks in Albania.

We urge the international community to stand with the Iranian people in their
