Iran on 'execution spree' since start of Israel-Hamas war, killing 107 anti-regime activists, ethnic minority rights, and the right to due process, and continuously violates them in the most egregious way." Iran chaired a one-day human rights council at the U.N. this month, drawing condemnation from watchdog groups.

Iranian President Ebrahim Raisi has tried to take a leading role in responding to the Israel-Hamas war and the ongoing operations in Gaza, which the Hamas-controlled Health Ministry claimed has killed over 11,000 people, though they do not distinguish between civilian and combatant deaths and multiple U.S. officials - including President Biden - have cast doubts on the numbers.
