Parliament member for 15 years (1999-2014). I have meticulously followed the situation surrounding Camp Ashraf, first in Iraq, and now in Albania.

I personally led a European Parliament delegation to Ashraf in Iraq in October 2008 and had the unique opportunity to speak to hundreds of members of the PMOI, including the younger generation at the Camp.

You might be aware of the Iranian regime's policies. In 2023 alone, the regime executed over 800 persons, marking it the world's leading per capita executioner of its own citizens. Beyond its brutal practices of torture and execution, the regime systematically vilifies its opponents, aiming to alienate the youth from them—a tactic not unlike those employed by totalitarian regimes throughout history.

The PMOI, with six-decade-long history of resisting both the Shah and the Ayatollahs' dictatorships, forms the backbone of the National Council of Resistance of Iran (NCRI). This coalition seeks a democratic framework, advocating for the separation of church and state, gender equality, and the elimination of the death penalty. NCRI President-elect Mrs. Maryam Rajvi's 10-Point Plan, endorsed by a wide array of global leaders and intellectuals, reflects these goals.

Since its inception, the Iranian regime has relentlessly pursued a demonization campaign against the PMOI, including assassinations abroad and propagandistic literature and films. Indeed, I personally was a victim of an assassination attempt on November 9, 2023. While walking home, I was shot in the head by an assassin. Miraculously, I survived and have recently been released from hospital, still undergoing treatment as doctors had to place metal plates in my face to repair my jaw. So far,
