"It is the hypocrites who are worse than the infidels . . . They were able to fool our pure, credulous, truthful young people with the propaganda they know and know well."<sup>169</sup>

Ten years later, in referring to Khomeini's decree to massacre the PMOI and its supporters, Mohammad Yazdi, at the time Iran's Judiciary Chief, said "The Imam's handwritten judicial order condemned the hypocrites (PMOI) – the totality of the organisation and its infrastructure, and not just individuals – so that there would be no hesitation in terming the activities by these individuals as 'waging war on God' and 'corruption on Earth'."<sup>170</sup>

As noted earlier, in response to a question posed by the then-Chief Justice Ayatollah Abdolkarim Moussavi Ardebili about the fate of those PMOI affiliates already tried but not sentenced to death, Khomeini stressed that they should be executed because they were "the enemies of Islam": "In all the above cases, if anyone at any stage maintains his [or her] position on nafaq [a pejorative reference to the PMOI], the sentence is execution; annihilate the enemies of Islam immediately."<sup>171</sup>

Mostafa Pourmohammadi, a member of Tehran's "Death Commission", and later the Interior and Justice Minister, further articulated the intent to eliminate the PMOI based on its religious beliefs, stating that because the PMOI were non-believers, their blood must be spilled.

همانطور که آیت الله خمینی خود، پس از بازگشت به ایران، گفت: "افراد ملی به درد ما
نمی خورند، افراد مسلم به درد ما می خورند. اسلام با ملیت مخالف است. معنی ملیت این است
که ما ملت را می خواهیم، ملیت را می خواهیم، و اسلام را نمی خواهیم."
