Iran: Executions of tortured protesters must trigger a robust reaction from the international community

Simay Azadi-SD

...in Iran less than two months after their arrest and executed just weeks after the Supreme Court rubber-stamped their unjust convictions and sentences without any regard for the lack of evidence and serious allegations of torture. The shocking speed at which these deaths illustrates the Iranian authorities' flagrant disregard for the right to life.

"These executions are designed by the Iranian authorities to send a strong message to the people of Iran that they will stop at nothing to crush and punish dissent. Without a robust international response, the authorities will continue to revel in their actions with lethal consequences for people in Iran."

"Governments must urgently denounce these executions, in the strongest possible public statements and demarches. However, in the face of the Iranian authorities' unrelenting use of the death penalty, this is not enough. People in Iran don't have the luxury of time - they are being arbitrarily deprived of their lives at a horrific rate under the guise of judicial executions."

"We urge all states to exercise universal jurisdiction over all Iranian officials against whom there is sufficient admissible evidence of criminal responsibility for torture and other crimes under international law."

"The Iranian authorities must understand, in no uncertain terms, that the world will not simply stand by as they intensify their use of the death penalty as a tool of political repression."

Iran's authorities must urgently denounce these executions, in the strongest public statements and demarches. However, in the face of the Iranian death penalty, this is not enough. People in Iran don't have the right to being arbitrarily deprived of their lives at a horrific rate under the guise of the law.

"We urge all states to exercise universal jurisdiction over all Iranian officials and officials of any other state with sufficient admissible evidence of criminal responsibility for torture and other crimes under international law."

"The Iranian authorities must understand, in no uncertain terms, that the world will not simply stand by as they intensify their use of the death penalty as a tool of political repression."

BACKGROUND

Majid Kazemi, Saleh Mirshahmehri and Saeed Yaghoobi were arrested in November 2022 following their participation in protests in Esfahan city amid the nationwide protests triggered by the death of Mahsa (Zina) Amini.

According to informed sources, the three men were subjected to torture while forcibly disappeared and forced to make incriminating statements, which formed the basis of the criminal case against them. Sources said that interrogators suspended Majid Kazemi upside down and showed him a video of them torturing his brother, whom they also detained. They also subjected Majid Kazemi to at least 15 times by standing him on a chair and putting a rope around his neck, and dropping him down at the last moment. In the days leading up to the trial, they threatened to execute him if he did not accept his charges and "confess" to whatever they said.

In an audio message from inside Dashtard Prison, where the men are held, Majid Kazemi said, "I

GENEVA (19 May 2023) – UN experts* today condemned the executions of Mr. Majid Kazemi, Mr. Saeed Yaghoubi and Mr. Saleh Mirhassani and urged the Government to halt the appalling wave of executions in Iran.

"We are alarmed by reports of unfair proceedings in the case and deeply disturbed that these men have reportedly been subjected to torture or other forms of ill-treatment to extract forced confessions," the experts said.

The three men were reportedly arrested on 21 November 2022 during protests in Golshan city following the uprising sparked by the death of Mahsa Jina Amini on 16 September. Accused of participating in the killing of three Iranian officials, they were sentenced to death and charged with moharebeh ("enmity against God").
