- c. The church completed the New Testament canon—The canon was completed by A.D. 175 except for a few books yet in dispute. As late as A.D. 325 Eusebius lists 7 books (Hebrews, James, II Peter, II John, III. John, Jude, and Revelation) as books not accepted as canonical in some churches. Within a few score years, these 7 books were fully accepted by almost all the churches and the New Testament canon was complete before the Council of Chalcedon, A.D. 451.
- d. The church insisted upon the authority of the Holy Scriptures—The Scriptures were held to be the final court of appeal.
- e. The church arrayed her polemical writers against the growing number of heretics—We will discuss this under our next heading.
