Whereas the families of the executed were denied information about their loved ones and were prohibited from mourning them in public;

Whereas the November 2, 2007, report from Amnesty International concluded that "there should be no impunity for human rights violations, no matter where or when they took place. The 1988 executions should be subject to an independent, impartial investigation, and all those responsible should be brought to justice and receive appropriate penalties";

Whereas, beginning in 2017 and continuing for several months after protests erupted in more than 100 cities, the Iranian regime suppressed such protests with repres-
