Iran: Authorities must drop death penalty and false charges facing tortured protesters

27 Jan 2023, 06:16pm

The Iranian authorities are increasingly imposing it for offences such as arson or vandalism, in gross violation of international law.

"We urge the international community to take all necessary measures to pressure the Iranian authorities to end their violation of the right to life. We further urge all states to exercise universal jurisdiction over all Iranian officials reasonably suspected of criminal responsibility for crimes under international law and other grave violations of human rights."

Weeks of harrowing letters

Javad Rouhi was arrested on 22 September 2022 and held for more than 40 days in solitary confinement at a detention centre. According to information obtained by Amnesty, he was - including on the soles of his feet - while tied to a pole, shocked with electric currents, and sexually assaulted by having ice put on his testicles.
