Australia and the Arab world.

The lawmakers have expressed their support for the Iranian people's uprising for a democratic republic and the Ten-point Plan of Mrs. Maryam Rajavi, the President of the National Council of Resistance of Iran (NCRI), calling for the adoption of a decisive policy against the Iranian regime, including the designation of the Revolutionary Guards (IRGC) as a terrorist organization and holding the regime's leaders accountable for crimes against humanity.

Among the statements is Resolution 100 of the US House of Representatives, sponsored by 239 lawmakers. Additionally, majorities from 28 other legislative assemblies have endorsed this statement. They include the French National Assembly, the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate in Italy, the House of Commons and Lords in the UK, as well as parliaments in Norway, Malta, Iceland, North Macedonia, Moldova, and the Dutch and the Republic of Ireland Senate.

The statement strongly condemns the killing of 750 protesters, the imprisonment of 30,000 and the ongoing wave of executions. "We stand in solidarity with the people of Iran in their desire for a secular and democratic republic where no individual, regardless of religious or birthright, has any privilege over others. Through their slogans the Iranian people have made it clear that they reject all forms of dictatorship, be it the deposed Shah or the current theocratic regime and thus reject any association with either," it stated.

The statement underscores "over the past four decades, the democratic coalition of the National Council of Resistance of Iran (NCRI) has constantly and tirelessly pursued democratic change."

It added: "In this respect, we believe the Ten-point Plan articulated by the NCRI President, Mrs. Maryam Rajavi, deserves our support. It stands for free elections, freedom of assembly and expression, abolition of the death penalty, gender equality, the separation of religion and state,
