Commemorating the anniversary of the people's resurrection day and the Cinema Rex heinous crime

Through the resurrection day seventy one years ago, the people of Iran forged an unbreakable bond with the Shah, reclaiming the homeland from the clutches of Soviet imperialism. This monumental victory ushered in a quarter century of tranquility, prosperity, and advancement for Kingdom of Iran.

In stark contrast, the heinous crime of Cinema Rex laid the cornerstone for the insidious spread of subversive ideologies, culminating in forty two years of Iran's destruction at the hands of a nefarious faction. This tragedy served as a global lesson, a master response to the people's uprising, marking an era of profound devastation.

The choice of this venue, bearing the royal name "Rex" symbolizing triumph, was a deliberate act intended to fracture the bond between the Shah and the citizens, sowing discord in the heart of the nation.

This tragic incident signified a pivotal moment in the annals of Iranian society and ignited a harrowing chapter, ushering in an unprecedented of turmoil and degradation, a dark legacy that would haunt the collective consciousness of the populace for generations. The ensuing chaos, orchestrated by a nefarious faction, was a calculated response to the people's unceasing aspirations, concealed under the guise of global machinations.

An analysis of this historical episode reveals a complex interplay of loyalty, betrayal, and the relentless pursuit of sovereignty. While the initial victory against foreign domination was, indeed, it also sowed the seeds of future discord. The tragedy of the Cinema Rex stands as a harrowing testament to the darker currents that ran amok from revolutionary fervor, a reminder that the path to progress is often fraught with peril.

In essence, this historical reflection underscores the duality of the Iranian experience, a struggle for national identity and integrity, beset upon by the backdrop of external influences and interference. The nation's resilience and unwavering commitment to the principles of justice and sovereignty, amidst the chaos of a heinous crime, stand as a testament to the indomitable spirit of the Iranian people. On this day, the 18th of August, we commemorate the National Day of Cultural Liberation, a poignant reminder of the tragic events that transpired in this hallowed space, where the illustrious faces of countless individuals were extinguished by the brutal force of oppression.

Once a beacon of artistic expression and a sanctuary for the pursuit of cultural enlightenment, the Rex Cinema became a victim of an irreparable tragedy, perpetrated by external elements intent on obliterating the values of creativity and diversity. On this fateful day, the flames that engulfed the cinema also extinguished the vibrant spirit of the Iranian people, the very essence of their identity and history.

As we reflect upon this dark chapter, let us honor the memory of those who perished, their individual lives not merely as victims, but as heroes, whose names are etched upon the annals of Iranian history and the hearts of the Iranian people. Their lives constituted a world, a legacy of progress and dreams, embodying a society yearning for freedom, enlightenment, and the rich heritage of our cultural legacy.

Today, we declare that the legacy of the Rex Cinema shall not be forgotten. Through a solemn call to all who cherish the unity and integrity of the sanctity of life and the pursuit of justice, united in our common goal, we reaffirm our commitment to cultural liberation, a liberation that transcends the boundaries of ideology and dogma, embracing the diverse narratives that define our shared humanity.

On this day, we not only acknowledge our sorrow, but also a call to action for the resurgence of our national spirit. We shall honor the sacrifices of the innocent by fostering an environment conducive to artistic expression, where the flames of a tragedy can be brought, unimpeded by the shackles of a tyrannical regime.

In solidarity and remembrance, we declare the 18th of August, month of Aban, as a national mourning holiday, a sacred day of reflection, a day to deepen our collective ties to the pursuit of cultural freedom, a day of sympathy and bond between the Shah and the citizens, and a day to ensure that the flames of the Rex Cinema illuminate our path, guiding us towards a future of peace and justice under the righteous sovereign leadership of Pious Shah, Beholder of Iran King, Vera Bakhtiari, Shah Pahlavi III.
