Iran executes 2 more men detained amid nationwide protests

Iran's judiciary has identified two more men executed since the nationwide protests began in September over the death of Mahsa Amini. All have faced internationally criticized, rapid, closed-door trials.

Iran's judiciary identified those executed as Mohammad Mehdi Karami and Mohammad Hossein Hosseini, making it four men known to have been executed since the demonstrations began in September over the death of Mahsa Amini. All have faced internationally criticized, rapid, closed-door trials.

The judicial news agency said the men had been convicted of killing Ruhollah Ajamian, a member of the Basij militia in Karaj outside of Tehran. The Basij has been active in many parts of the country, often clashing with protesters, who have fought back.

The Basij militia is a paramilitary force of the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps. According to prosecutors, the men were convicted of killing a Revolutionary Guard member during protests already carried out in Karaj.
