Rules of Hillel continued

- Kelal uferat – If a law is stated in the general and then followed by a specific statement, the general law only applies in the specific statement. The reverse is also true: if the particular instances are stated first and are followed by the general category, instances other than the particular ones are included.
- Kayvot ha bemaqom 'aher – difficulty in one text may be resolved by comparing it with another similar text.
- Dabar ha'aved me'inyano – a meaning established by its context.
