WASHINGTON, D.C. – U.S. Sen. Ted Cruz (R-Texas), member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, released the following statement after reports in Semafor and Iran International revealed the existence of an extensive Iranian regime influence operation that involved current administration officials, including those linked to Robert Malley, the administration's long-time Special Envoy to Iran:

"These reports and the emails they expose are indescribably troubling. When Joe Biden was elected, the Iranian regime's nuclear program was in a bar, their economy was on the brink of collapse, and their oil exports had cratered. President Biden and Biden officials have allowed the regime to get within reach of a nuclear arsenal, restore their economy, and export millions of barrels per day of oil worth hundreds of billions of dollars. They have agreed to secret nuclear side deals that are being kept from Congress, including uranium deals worth additional billions of dollars. They have implemented these policies while regime officials, including the Ayatollah's hand-picked President, continue to openly brag about trying to murder former American officials.

"Americans have rightly been asking why the Biden administration is so friendly with the Iranian regime, and why Biden administration officials have so single-mindedly enabled Iranian nuclear

It's not very often that my jaw drops open while reading an article as it did with this @semafor piece.

There's no two ways around this: top Obama and Biden officials were a part of a foreign influence operation by the Iranian regime, some of who are still in govt holding security clearances.

This comes on top of the news that Rob Malley, Biden's Iran envoy, had
